Operations Supervisor/Manager

Liquid Freight is a family company managing liquid food grade tanker freight through the use of its load brokering website (www.liquidfreight.com) and transportation management software. We seek an operations supervisor to join our team in Janesville, WI. Liquid Freight is a growing company and we’d like you to grow with us.

This person will be managing, overseeing, and working with our operations team. Once acclimated with customers and the operations team you will be part of the regular night & weekend on call rotation. We’ll also be wanting your insight and vision to continue our innovative role in this industry.

As a hands on leader, you will be posting available loads on www.liquidfreight.com, negotiating rates, and ensuring the timely pick-up/delivery of customer freight. For us to continue succeeding we need you to foster strong relationships with carriers, customers and our internal operations team.

Great communication, customer service and problem solving skills need to be in the fabric that makes you the person you are. We’re looking for a person with grit. The ideal candidate will put forth organized and detailed work. They will also have strong customer service and supervisory experience. Having experience in the 3PL/Freight Brokerage & Transportation industry will be a plus.

Our vision is: Moving Food Forward.

Our values are: Family matters. Serve others, be honest, and do the right thing. Have fun and be profitable.

Our purpose is: Stewards of a smart food supply chain, powered by strong relationships, passion, and the human factor.

We want to learn about you and how you would complement our existing team. As such, a cover letter is required to be considered for this position.
